

WCC 2025 Schedule

Programming is tailored to people working in economic and community development, waterway management, tourism, and historic preservation along the world's inland waterways. Customize your participation based on your interests, or discover new thinkers and topics that expand your horizons.

	Sunday Sept 21
12:00pm - 5:00pm Conference Kickoff
Live performances, special programs and tours, and entertainment at Canalside and greater Buffalo.
1:00pm - 4:00pm Explore Buffalo Bike Ride
Enjoy a 10-mile guided bike ride led by Parks & Trails New York. Departs from Canalside; 2-3 hours. The ride will follow a casual pace and will stop multiple times at points of interest. Bike rentals are available, first come, first served. Registration required and limited to 75 participants.
6:00pm - 7:00pm Inland Waterways International Annual Meeting
For members of Inland Waterways International. Location: Hyatt Regency Hotel
7:00pm - 9:00pm International Welcome Reception
Meet, mingle, and enjoy drinks and light hors d'oeuvres with fellow attendees at this casual reception. Location: Hyatt Regency Hotel, 2nd Floor

WCC 2025 Schedule

Programming is tailored to people working in economic and community development, waterway management, tourism, and historic preservation along the world's inland waterways. Customize your participation based on your interests, or discover new thinkers and topics that expand your horizons.

Monday Sept 22

8:30am - 9:15am

Conference Opening and Welcome

Conference hosts and local dignitaries welcome attendees to Buffalo.

9:15am - 11:15am

General Sessions

9:15am - 10:00am

Currents of Change: How Historic Waterways Drive Economic Growth

Moderator:

Walter T. Mosley,
Secretary of the State of New York

Speakers:

Brian Stratton,
Director, NYS Canal Corporation

Hope Knight,
CEO and Commissioner of Empire State Development

10:00am - 10:30am

Break,
Exhibition Hall Open 10am-5pm

10:30am - 11:15 am

Boat Passage in Leipzig's District

Speaker:

Angela Zabochnik,
Office for Urban Green Spaces
and Waterways Leipzig

11:15 am - 12:00 pm

Keynote TBA

Keynote speaker to be announced soon.

12:00pm - 1:00pm

Lunch

Special presentation: Story and Symbol: Recreating the Erie Canal Boat Seneca Chief
Buffalo Maritime Center

WCC 2025 Schedule

Programming is tailored to people working in economic and community development, waterway management, tourism, and historic preservation along the world's inland waterways. Customize your participation based on your interests, or discover new thinkers and topics that expand your horizons.

MondaySept 22

1:00pm - 4:30pm
Breakout Sessions

1:00pm-2:00pm

1Trends in Waterway Tourism & Recreation

Seeing the Canal Anew Through the Arts

Speakers:
Angelyn Chandler,
New York Power Authority

Matthew López-Jensen,
Fordham University and Parsons School of Design

Andy Scott,
Andy Scott Sculptures,
Scotland

2Inclusion and Accessibility

Before the Erie Canal:
Indigenous Water
Transport and Biological Wealth

Speakers:
Maddy Nyblad,
Assistant Professor,
SUNY ESF

Catherine Landis,
Center for Native Peoples
and the Environment,
SUNY ESF

3Waterway Management

Canal Boat Electrification:
Problems and Solutions

Speakers:
David Borton,
CEO, Sustainable Energy
Systems Inc

Eric Hamilton,
Secretary, Mohawk
Towpath Byway

Pete Bardunias,
Senior Vice President,
Capital Region Chamber

Locking Forward and Back: Using AI to enable the Past to Speak to the Present to Ensure the Future of New York State
Canal System

Speaker:
Chuck Piotrowski,
New York Power Authority

2:10pm-3:10pm

1Canals and Historic Preservation

The Grand Erie Canal:
Precedents, Growth and Preservation

Speakers:
Brad Utter,
New York State Museum

Derrick Pratt,
Erie Canal Museum

David Brooks,
Schoharie Crossing State
Historic Site

2Trends in Waterway Tourism & Recreation

Attracting Long-Distance
Cruising Boats to a Canal
Near You

Speakers:
Kim Russo,
America's Great Loop
Cruisers' Association

Chad Buchner,
Trent-Severn Waterway
National Historic Site of Canada

3Healthy Waterways,
Healthy Communities

Upstate New York's
Renaissance in Downtown
Revitalization in Erie
Canal Communities

Speakers:
Paul Beyer,
NYS Department of State

Austin Tylec,
Mayor, City of North
Tonawanda

Ken Kearney,
Kearney Realty &
Development Group

Amanda Smith,
NYS Department of State

3:10pm-3:30pm: Break / Exhibition Hall Open 1:00pm - 4:30pm

WCC 2025 Schedule

Programming is tailored to people working in economic and community development, waterway management, tourism, and historic preservation along the world's inland waterways. Customize your participation based on your interests, or discover new thinkers and topics that expand your horizons.

MondaySept 22

1:00pm - 4:30pm
Breakout Sessions

3:30pm - 4:30pm

1Waterway Management

Aquatic Invasive Species Management Protecting Our Waters: Innovative Strategies Against Aquatic Invaders

Speakers:
Kate Litrell,
Senior Environmental Scientist,
New York Power Authority

Meg Molly Gilbertson,
Lake Champlain Basin Program

Steven Pearson,
New York State Department of Environmental Conservation

Shifting Gears after 10 Years: Initiating New Techniques for Hydrilla Control on the Erie Canal

Speaker:
Lindsay Yoder,
New York State Department of Environmental Conservation

2Trends in Waterway Tourism & Recreation

Boosting Canal Economies Through Novel Tourism

Speaker:
Marilyn Higgins,
Author, Dreams of Freedom

Harnessing Popular Culture to Expand Popular Interest in Canals

Speaker:
Nancy Bachana,
Educator, D&H Canal Museum

Author, The Key to Puzzler's Lock Children Puzzle Mystery

3Inclusion and Accessibility

Encounters with Uncomfortable Histories in the Canal Space

Speaker:
Dr. Jodie Matthews,
Manchester Metropolitan University, UK

Uncovering Peyton Harris

Speaker:
Yao Khalil Newkirk,
PhD student, University at Buffalo

4:30pm - 5:30pm
WMHT Documentary Screening

Reflections on the Erie Canal

Look back on the two-hundred-year journey of the Erie Canal and contemplate its future on its bicentennial anniversary.

WCC 2025 Schedule

Programming is tailored to people working in economic and community development, waterway management, tourism, and historic preservation along the world's inland waterways. Customize your participation based on your interests, or discover new thinkers and topics that expand your horizons.

Monday

Sept 22

5:30pm - 6:30pm

Reception at the Statler Hotel

Meet in the Hyatt lobby for the short walk to the Statler Hotel for our evening reception and dinner.

6:30pm - 8:30pm

Welcome Dinner at the Statler Hotel

Enjoy camaraderie, drinks and fine food at the elegantly restored historic Statler Hotel, just a short walk from the Hyatt.

Tuesday

Sept 23

8:00am - 8:30pm

NIAGARA FALLS - WELLAND CANAL
Field Session

Cross Border Connections: From Past to Present

8:00am - 8:30pm

BROCKPORT - FAIRPORT
Field Session

Recreation, Access, and Accessibility

8:00am - 8:30pm

LOCKPORT - MEDINA
Field Session

Downtown Revitalization Through History and Art

8:30am - 8:30pm

NORTH TONAWANDA - LOCKPORT
Field Session

Waterfront Revitalization and Economic Development

WCC 2025 Schedule

Programming is tailored to people working in economic and community development, waterway management, tourism, and historic preservation along the world's inland waterways. Customize your participation based on your interests, or discover new thinkers and topics that expand your horizons.

WednesdaySept 24

7:30am - 9:00am
Breakfast

Shuttle service on loop to Canalside

9:00am - 11:00am
Erie Canal Boat Seneca Chief Voyage Kickoff Ceremony at Canalside

Conference delegates will join in the sendoff ceremony for the Erie Canal Boat Seneca Chief as it launches from Canalside for its bicentennial voyage from Buffalo to New York City

11:00am - 1:00pm
Lunch On Your Own

Enjoy local fare in downtown Buffalo.

1:00pm - 4:30pm
Exhibition Hall Open

Exhibition Hall Open

1:00pm - 4:30pm
Breakout Sessions

1:00pm-2:00pm

1Trends in Waterway Tourism & Recreation

Locks, Lore, and Living History: The Vital Role of Canal Tenders

Speakers:
Paul David Richardson,
New York State Canal Corporation

Chad Buchner,
Trent-Severn Waterway
National Historic Site of Canada

John McKee,
New York State Canal Corporation

2Canals and Historic Preservation

Preserving History at the Schoharie Crossing Aqueduct

Speaker:
Paul Banks,
Schoharie Crossing State Historic Site

200 Years Strong: The Adaptive Re-use of the Erie Canal

Speaker:
Robyn Sedgwick,
New York State Office of Parks, Recreation, and Historic Preservation

Living Museums: Making Lockhouses More Accessible to the Public

Speaker:
Arden Shaer,
C&O Canal Trust

3Healthy Waterways, Healthy Communities

The Importance Of Transiting Boats In Securing The Future Of The French Waterway Network

Speaker:
David Edwards May,
Inland Waterways International

The Soulanges Canal (Montréal, Canada). A laboratory of innovation in canal construction (1891-1900)

Speaker:
Luc Noppen,
Université du Québec à Montréal

Renewed Focus on Inland Water Transport in India

Speaker:
Sri Krishna Kumar,
Indian Water Resources Society & Department of Water Resources, Uttar Pradesh, India

WCC 2025 Schedule

Programming is tailored to people working in economic and community development, waterway management, tourism, and historic preservation along the world's inland waterways. Customize your participation based on your interests, or discover new thinkers and topics that expand your horizons.

Wednesday Sept 24

1:00pm - 4:30pm
Breakout Sessions

2:10pm - 3:10pm

1 Trends in Waterway Tourism & Recreation	2 Inclusion and Accessibility	3 Waterway Management
Historic Routes, Future Opportunities: Community Engagement Through the Erie Canal Speakers: Derrick Pratt, Erie Canal Museum Erica Schneider, Parks & Trails New York Ashley Quimby-Simoni, Erie Canalway National Heritage Corridor	Canal Narratives: Expanding Storytelling and Finding Audiences Speakers: Catherine Rafferty, WMHT Public Media Will Pedigo, WMHT Public Media Shane Mahar, New York Power Authority/ NYS Canal Corporation	Seepage Solutions: Engineering Excellence on the Erie Canal Speakers: Wesley Hollenbach, AECOM Joe Dodd, New York Power Authority Enhancing Waterway Management and Decision-Making with System-Wide Models: Insights from the Erie Canal in the United States Speaker: Allan Estivalet, Schnabel Engineering Felix Weidlinger, Schnabel Engineering

3:10pm-3:30pm: Break / Exhibition Hall Open 1:00pm - 5:00pm

2:10pm - 3:10pm

1 Trends in Waterway Tourism & Recreation	2 Inclusion and Accessibility	3 Healthy Waterways, Healthy Communities
The Erie Canal at 200: Uncovering Diverse Legacies and Untold Stories Speakers: Brian McAlonie, BMC Consulting Michele-Elise Burnett, Kakekalanicks Barbara Sears-Nevegold, PhD, Educator, Community Historian, and Author <hr/> Reconnecting Buffalo to Its Waterfront: The Story of Ralph Wilson Park Speakers: Katie Campos, Executive Director, Ralph Wilson Park Conservancy Charlie Torres, Vice President, Board of Directors, Ralph Wilson Park Conservancy	How Historic Interpretation of the Underground Railroad Can Generate Tourism in Canal Communities and Create Economic Development Opportunities for Underrepresented Groups Speakers: Sage Hamilton-Hazarika, Underground Railroad Consortium of New York State Garry Johnson, NAACP New York State Conference Shondel Beverly, Oneida County Tourism	Historic Downtown Revitalization Through Canal Connectivity Speaker: Michael Cocquyt, LaBella Associates <hr/> Under Main Street: Investing in Local Stories and Communities across the Erie Canal Speaker: Patrick Lynch, Syracuse University <hr/> Delaware Canal - Then and Now Speakers: Michael Ginder, Friends of the Delaware Canal Brett Webber, Friends of the Delaware Canal

WCC 2025 Schedule

Programming is tailored to people working in economic and community development, waterway management, tourism, and historic preservation along the world's inland waterways. Customize your participation based on your interests, or discover new thinkers and topics that expand your horizons.

Wednesday Sept 24

6:00pm - 6:30pm

Transport To Canalside

Transport To Canalside

6:30pm - 8:30pm

Banquet at Canalside

Return to the waterfront for this casual dinner with live musical performances and your choice of ethnic food from several food trucks.

8:30pm - 9:00pm

Return Transport To Hyatt

Return Transport To Hyatt

WCC 2025 Schedule

Programming is tailored to people working in economic and community development, waterway management, tourism, and historic preservation along the world's inland waterways. Customize your participation based on your interests, or discover new thinkers and topics that expand your horizons.

ThursdaySept 25

7:30am - 9:00am
Breakfast

Breakfast

8:30am - 12:00pm
General Sessions

8:30am - 9:00am
Photography Along the Erie Canal

Speaker:
John Kucko,
John Kucko Digital

9:00am - 9:30am
Lingqu Canal & WCC26, The Ancient Canal and Modern Community Life

Speaker:
Bi Huangwen,
The Lingqu Canal, China

9:30am - 10:30am
Sustainable Inclusion: Transforming Canal Recreation Through Education and Action

Speakers:
Alyson Danielewicz,
New York Power Authority
Darby Racey,
New York Power Authority
Anita O'Brien,
Rochester Accessible Adventures
Kate Morse,
Hudson Crossing Park
Laura Mack,
Corn Hill Waterfront & Navigation Foundation

10:00am - 10:30am: Break

11:00am - 12:00pm
Trails and Stewardship

Moderator:
Mona Caron,
Erie Canalway National Heritage Corridor

Bridging Eras: The New York State Canalway Trail's Past, Present, and Future

Speakers:
Dylan Carey,
Parks & Trails New York
Sasha del Peral,
NYS Canal Corporation

C&O Canal: Towpath trail becomes the driver for historic preservation

Speaker:
Bill Holdsworth,
Chesapeake & Ohio Canal Association

Cultivating The Next Generation of Public Lands Stewards Through Perennial Engagement

Speaker:
Rebecca Murray,
PTNY

WCC 2025 Schedule

Programming is tailored to people working in economic and community development, waterway management, tourism, and historic preservation along the world's inland waterways. Customize your participation based on your interests, or discover new thinkers and topics that expand your horizons.

Thursday Sept 25

12:00pm - 12:30pm
Hand-off Ceremony for WCC2026 Hosts and Closing

WCC2025 hosts will pass the torch to delegates from Guilin, China, host city for WCC2026

12:30pm - 1:00pm
Grab And Go Lunch

Pick up a boxed lunch before departing.